

Peel Regional Police ...

As the second largest police service in Ontario, and the third largest police service in Canada, the Peel Regional Police face many challenges in policing our area.

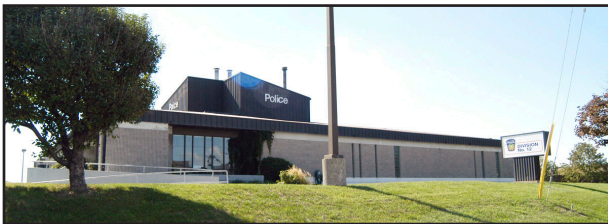

Our Region has many features that set it apart from the rest of the Province. We have approximately a million residents living in our Region, and countless others come into our Region each day to work, shop and relax.

Our Region also boasts the Pearson International Airport, which brings millions of tourists and new residents into our country and Region each year. The presence of the airport has provided our Region with a rich tradition of cultural diversity, with over 40 percent of our population having emigrated here from locations all around the world.

With our strategic position in the Greater Toronto Area, whether Peel Region is a final destination or simply a stop on route, it has many non-residents passing through.

While each of these factors, and the many more affecting our Region, are all things for which we are fortunate, they can also bring further challenges in policing, and community input can provide the Police with creative ideas on how to combat crime and keep our neighbourhoods and families safe and secure.

12 Division ...

Located at 4600 Dixie Road, Mississauga, 12 Division is a full service operational division. We have a full uniform contingent, as well as a comprehensive criminal investigation bureau and neighbourhood policing unit. The 236,216 residents are served by 251 officers and civilian personnel.

Also located within the 12 Division boundaries are 4 Community Stations – a smaller police facility strategically located in the community it serves. It provides a central location for police and residents to work together, solving problems of mutual concern, dispensing a wide variety of information and advice to the public. Each station is tailored to reflect the individuality and uniqueness of the community in which it is located.

12 Division serves the community resting between Derry Road to the north, Mavis Road to the west, Lake Ontario to the south and the Etobicoke Creek to the east.

Bridging The Gap
Between Police & Community

Get Connected ...

The Police Community Liaison Committee (PCLC) is a dedicated group of citizens, whose main goal is to bridge the gap between police and community.

The members of PCLC meet monthly to discuss the issues that affect Peel Regional Police - 12 Division, the business community and the people who live there.

Speakers from diverse backgrounds, including members of the Peel Regional Police and its units and various social and community service agencies, address PCLC at each meeting to build awareness of the programs and services they provide.

Each year, PCLC hosts the Peel Regional Police – 12 Division’s Annual Open House, which raises money and awareness for various charities and community organizations.

PCLC is made up of people who care about policing in our community, including residents, members of the business community, city representatives and Peel Regional Police officers.

New members are always welcome. Your input on our team is invaluable in making our community a safer place to live, work and play in. Our community values diversity and we encourage all interested persons to come out and get involved.
